CENTRAL RECORD.

FRIDAY, February 4, 1898.

PERSONAL.

Miss Pearl Huffman is the guest of Miss Leona Rodgers.

Mrs. Alice Clark of Danville, is visiting Mrs. J. Rodgers.

Miss Ora Sanders, of Buckeye, is the guest of Miss Pearl Ross.

Mrs. Alice Clark and sister visited Mrs. J. L. Warner, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arnold visited Mrs. J. L. Warner, Sunday.

Mr. Merriman and family, of Illinois are guests of T. J. Hammond.

Miss Allie Marksberry entertained a few friends Monday evening.

Mrs. Minnie Harvey and children are visiting Mrs. Maggie Arnold.

Miss Mary Elkin, of Stanford, is the pretty guest of Miss Mattie Elkin.

Mrs. Allen Beazley is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hays, in Stanford.

Mr. Willie Stone, who has been ill with pneumonia, is much improved.

Miss Betty Henry has returned from a visit to relatives in Crab Orchard.

Miss Annie Austin, of Crab Orchard, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Drake and handsome baby, Lois, were visitors here last week.

Miss Fannie West was entertained by Miss Amanda Anderson Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Faulconer, of the Presbyterian church, has been spending a week in Middlesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Russell, of Marion county are visiting the family of W. B. Jarvis.

Miss Mattie Beazley, of Crab Orchard, is visiting her brother, Dr. Walter Beazley.

Miss Minna Crutcher, after a short visit to Miss Sallie Anderson, has returned to Richmond.

Capt. Chas. Gallagher, who was quite ill at the home of his son-in-law, W. A. Blatt is much better.

Miss Louise Kaufman, of Richmond College, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Emma Kaufman.

Miss Anna Pearl Burnside, of Stanford, has been visiting Misses Bessie and Jennie Burnside, at "Possum Hollow."

Dr. Allison Clokey returned to Louisville after visiting Miss Lula, Watson, who is doing splendidly and we hope will soon be entirely well.

The bad weather prevents Capt. White from coming to his post in THE RECORD office. He has about recovered though, we are glad to note.

Mr. Jno. S. Baughman, of Danville, was in town Monday and honored THE RECORD office, with a call. John is a mighty clever fellow and the girl who captures him will indeed be fortunate.

The Stanford Journal says Col. W. G. Welch, who has suffered with rheumatism for some time, has gone to the Martinsville, Ind., Springs, with the hope of improvement.

We are glad to see Mr. T. W. Reid back at his post in Gaines' grocery, after a slight illness. This is Mr. Reid's first illness for many years and it was very much against the grain with him.

Rosebuds Society.

Written for THE RECORD.
It was I think early in the '70's that I wrote the appended simple stanzas for the little people composing the Rosebud Society in Mrs. W. A. Yantis' department of Franklin Institute. Recently I have had a letter from the "Mary" of the lines, requesting that the piece be reproduced in the CENTRAL RECORD, and I comply, hoping that the editor will give it space. "The Alpha Flower Garden," and "The Omega Flower Garden," were also written about the same time, to complement the rival literary societies of the institute.

My recollection is that the Rosebuds were Mary Hicks, Tom Bush, Susie Harris, Lida Jennings, Lizzie Jennings, Abbie and Frank Yantis, Nannie, Fleece Cook, Will White, Willie, Nellie Marra, Lettie Carson, Mollie, Liza Silridge, Lula Chaires, Maggie Curry, Addie Folger, George Potts, Allie, Mamie Oids, Napoleon Price, Sallie.

The Blanks I find I am not able to fill with certainty. I believe it would be of interest to the readers of THE RECORD, to trace these "Rosebuds" and publish their whereabouts at this time.

Lida, Lula and Lizzie lived to womanhood, were married, and called to their eternal home while yet in the springtime of life. "Abbie" is now Mrs. John Morgan, of Paragould, Arkansas, and the happy mother of four little Rosebuds of her own. She is prosperous, as is also "Frank," who is married and is a rising railroad man. "George" is married and has a fine position as manager of the Burnet House, Cincinnati. "Fleece" is Mrs. Kinnaird, "Mamie" is Mrs. Stormes, and "Maggie" is Mrs. Robinson, all of your own town and county. Will not some reader fill out the missing paragraph and tell us where the others are?

A VISIT TO FAIRY LAND.
I was walking in the city,
On a bright sunny day,
When I met a little fairy
On my long, lovely way.

She was dressed all in roses,
In her hand a small stick,
Her face was glad and merry,
And her step light and quick.

On her head a crown of flowers,
On her feet golden shoes,
And the little wand she carried,
Wore the same yellow hues.

"Will you walk into my garden?"
Said her small silvery voice;
"I will show you all my roses,
And you may take your choice."

"I have only lately planted
These young rose trees of mine,
But their blossoms are as fragrant
As the finest of the fine."

"I will let you pluck a nosegay,
You may stroll through my bowers,
So come this way, fair lady,
And see my pretty flowers."

Then I could not choose but enter,
Through the gate opened wide,
So I went into the garden
Of my sweet fairy guide.

She had twenty-five or thirty
Little trees in a row,
And I smiled when I noticed
How the blossoms seemed to grow.

And 'twas funny that the flowers
Did not bloom out in full,
For she had instead of roses,
Only Rosebuds to pull.

So I asked the little fairy
How she made them so neat,
How she kept her charming Rosebuds
So tidy and so sweet.

Said she: "Lady, I will tell you,
I have known a long while;
With tears of joy I water them,
Their sunshine is my smile."

I stepped forth to take a cluster,
When the spirit's golden wand
Touched the trees, and lo! a wonder,
Beneath my outstretched hand.

For a little girl came tripping
From each tree on my right,
And on my left were little boys,
Driving roses out of sight.

On each leafy top were ringlets,
All of bright sunny hair,
And each tree was clad in garments
That only children wear.

Now the spirit became a lady,
Quite as tall as myself;
All her rosy raiment vanished
To adorn some other elf.

And the garden all around me,
Changed into a long hall,
Where these little human Rosebuds
Seemed to come at my call.

There were Mary, Tommie, Susie,
Lida, Lizzie, Abbie, Frank,
Nannie, Fleece, Charley, Willie,
All just ready for a prank.

Nellie, Lettie, Mollie, Liza,
Lula, Maggie, Addie, George,
Allie, Mamie, Naps, Sallie,
Lads and lassies small and large.

Priceless Pain

"If a price can be placed on pain, 'Mother's Friend' is worth its weight in gold as an alleviator. My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of 'Mother's Friend.' It is a blessing to any one expecting to become a mother," says a customer.

Thus writes Henderson Dale, Druggist, of Carmi, Ill., to the Bradfield Regulator Company, of Atlanta, Ga., the proprietors and manufacturers of "Mother's Friend." This successful remedy is not one of the many internal medicines advertised to do unreasonable things, but a scientifically prepared liniment especially effective in adding strength and elasticity to those parts of woman's organism which bear the severest strains of childbirth.

The liniment may be used at any and all times during pregnancy up to the very hour of confinement. The earlier it is begun, and the longer used, the more perfect will be the result, but it has been used during the last month only with great benefit and success.

It not only shortens labor and lessens the pain attending it, but greatly diminishes the danger to life of both mother and child, and leaves the mother in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists at $1.00, or sent by express on receipt of price.

Valuable book for women, "Before Baby is Born," sent free on application. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Such a lovely little garden,
Of living, breathing flowers,
That I thought I could not leave them
For a great many hours.

Then they bravely made some speeches,
That were witty and were wise;
While their hearts looked warm and loving,
Through their bright sparkling eyes.

And they moved about with freedom,
Full of quick, childish grace,
And the love they bore the lady
Shone on each happy face.

I had never seen such wonders
Of little girls and boys;
I was never called to enter
Such a paradise of joys.

So I said, "I love these blossoms,
But I cannot pluck them all;
I will leave them to their fairy
Who presides at Rosebud Hall."

EUGENIA D. POTTS.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious troubles that follow neglected colds.

McCREARY.

J. R. Bradshaw, of Marion, Ill., is with his father, Mr. T. W. Bradshaw. Miss Florence Tanner, of McKinney, was the guest of Misses Carrie Hardin and Lillie Warner last week. A. S. Prewitt who lives near Greencastle, Ind., has returned home after spending several weeks with Mr. Ben Kelley. Misses Minnie Pherigo and Carrie Hardin visited Miss Susie Long in Madison county, and attended a birthday party given by Miss Etta Cotton. The Misses West of Paint Lick, were entertained by Miss Minnie Warren last week.

There are three little things which do more work than any other three little things created—they are the ant, the bee and DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the last being the famous little pills for stomach and liver troubles.

SWEENEY.

S. Rigby sold to James McCarley 5 shoats at 3c per pound.

Miss Stella Derhon has returned home from a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Gray, at Livingston.

J. F. Thompson sold to McCarley & Lawson 9 shoats at 3c. J. H. Thompson and J. F. Thompson sold 13 to same party at same price.

S. Morgan sold 1 milk cow to Dave Ross for $30, 1 fat cow to B. F. Robinson for $34, and 1 at 3c, also S. Morgan bought 20 head of shoats at 3c, and bought 1 fat cow from Sam Anderson at $24.

MARKSBURY.

Dr. B. F. Walter, dentist office over Ballou's store.

H. D. Aldridge sold to J. A. Wood a short horn cow for $25.

There have been several parties in this community this winter and we suppose from what Madam Rumor says that there have been some engagements. One young fellow was overheard trying to prevail on his sweetheart to change her name. As he was a great lover of dogs and she was not, she demurred at first but finally consented on condition that he would only keep his old coon dog.

So a great burden has rolled off his mind and we suppose that it will not be long before Rev. Kuykendal will be called upon to tie the nuptial knot, as he has adopted the "credit system."

Miss Lona Palmer, of Point Leavelle visited Miss Jennie Perkins, last week. Mr. Joe Aldridge is quite sick with pneumonia at this writing. Dr. Liering is the attending physician. Mrs. Sam Haselden, Mr. Robert Jennings and Dr. and Mrs. Mack Elliott, of Bryansville, were in the congregation at the Fork, Sunday. Miss Ida Mae Kelley will open a four months spring school at the Mason school house, Monday Feb. 7, with twenty pupils. We are glad to note that Mrs. Miriam Peters who has been suffering with a sprained ankle for several weeks is able to walk around the room with the aid of a crutch.

Children and adults tortured by burns, scalds, injuries, eczema or skin diseases may secure instant relief by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the great Pile Remedy. Stormes' Drug Store.

W. H. Furr bought a hog from Mr. Jake Clouse for $3.50.

Mr. Sweeney Morgan was in this vicinity buying stock last week.

Mr. Thomas Collett bought two calves from Mr. Corum for $33.

Bob Faulkner, of color, had a mule to die last week from the effects of a mad dog bite.

There have been several mad dogs killed lately in the surrounding neighborhood.

Mrs. James, the widow of the late David James, died of a grippe at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. John Boal, in Estill county. She was brought here and buried in the Drake's creek graveyard, near Preachersville.

Mr. John Jackson is very sick of pneumonia. Miss Maggie Ross, of Hammack, spent Thursday at Flatwoods. Mrs. Dave Anderson is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Hays.

LEAF.

Dr. B. F. Walter, dentist office over Ballou's store, Lancaster.

Mr. Will Wallace traded a bunch of mules to W. H. Douglas for his crop of corn.

Ed. Adams, of El Dorado, Ark., is here with a car load of cattle from that state.

Some sneak thief stole about one third of the coal that Mrs. Annie Adams had at the school house Sunday night.

Mrs. Annie Adams commenced teaching a subscription school at Norris' store house last Monday. Little Willie Pullins, son of Mason Pullins, is quite sick. W. K. Adams went to Rockcastle this week on business.

For Sale.

I will sell my farm of 73 acres situated in Garrard county, 2 1/2 miles northwest of Paint Lick station, on the L. & N. Railroad. It has on it a new house with six rooms, a new barn and other necessary buildings and also a good tenant house. There is a well of water at the door, the best in the county, not falling during the drought last summer. The water is so cold that we never have to use any ice in the hottest weather. The farm is under good fence and is very productive and will produce anything that grows in this country. It is supplied by a spring of pure running water that never has been known to go dry. My reason for selling: My physician advises me to change climate on the account of my health. Address C. B. ENGLEMAN, Paint Lick, Ky.

Planters CUBAN OIL cures cuts, burns, bruises, rheumatism and sores. Price, 25 cents.

Loss Satisfactorily Adjusted and Money Promptly Paid.

BRYANSVILLE, KY.

To the members of the Kentucky Growers Insurance Co., and to whom it may concern:

Owing to the many inquiries relative to the loss of my dwelling by fire, I wish to say for the benefit of those interested, that the amount due me under my policy in case of a total loss was determined when I made my application and as shown by my policy. Owing to my absence in Virginia my loss was not certified by Mr. G. T. Higginbotham, Chairman of Garrard county board, to the company for payment until Nov. 23, and in less than sixty days thereafter I received the entire amount insured for. For solvency and cheapness every farmer should consider our company before insuring elsewhere.

Yours truly,

N. Noe.

The above speaks for itself and those desiring protection to their property against fire, lightning and wind at a price in accord with the cost of carrying it, should confer with D. W. Dunn, Danville, solicitor for Boyle county, Jesse Doty, Hyattsville, solicitor for Garrard county, H. C. Baughman, Stanford, R. B. Kenhall, General Manager, Lexington, Ky.
